We have all been there. If you're hosting a party or a guest at a party, there is always someone who does not drink or can't drink. Almost half of adults in the US do not drink. This could be because of many reasons from religious to a pregnancy. There are even times when someone just does not want to drink, which I have many of. When you don't drink and you're attending events or parties, it can make you feel a bit out-of-place. This is where Mocktails Brand Non-Alcoholic Beverages (<http://www.mocktails.com/>) come in handy.

Mocktails Brand offers a range of these beverages and actually sent me two of them to review. I was thrilled to be able (<http://store.mocktails.com/>) to check them out. These mixers are great on their own or with alcohol, so that all your guests can drink up! When I heard that they were Gluten-Free, I was in! If you are on a gluten-free diet you know how hard it is to find mixers for your beverages. To add to the benefits of serving Mocktails Brand, they don't contain high fructose corn syrup or preservatives and they're also allergen-free, and BPA-free.

The two flavors I was sent was the Scottish Lemonade and the Red Sangria. I honestly have not tried them with liquor yet, but I plan to this weekend. I did however try both of them on their own. I am in love with the Red Sangria, in fact, I am sipping on it as I type. The Scottish Lemonade tastes just like a whiskey sour, but with a bit more flare! They actually added some lime and ginger. This will make you weak in the knees. 😊 (<http://store.mocktails.com/>)

Each Mocktail (<http://store.mocktails.com/>) Brand Cocktail comes in a glass container with a mason jar type lid, so that you can keep it fresh and ready to go. Just twist off the lid and attach the shaker! Time to Party!! You can purchase these Mocktails Brand Cocktails for $39.95 for a four pack or you can get a sampler pack which includes all four flavors for $39.95. The other flavors that they offer are The Vida Loca Margarita, The Karma Sucra Cosmopolitan. I bet they both are delish! These would be perfect for your Easter get together or an addition to an Easter Basket.
